Search Form 990'S with an Advantage with 990 Search

Although there are other sources of U.S Foundation Form 990-PF information available on the internet, 990 Search offers a key advantage over these services. Using the latest OCR (optical character recognition) technology we have digitally-captured over one million pages of data from over 90,000 private U.S. foundation tax forms. Our technology allows you to search within the Form 990-PF of which is in Adobe Acrobat (PDF) format. You are able to select from search criteria such as: EIN, Foundation Name, Tax Year, State, zip code and Total Assets (including ranges of assets) to find relevant information. Prospect Research Online has obtained this information directly from the United States Internal Revenue Service.

With our search technology, you are able to search for a specific name or organization within the form 990. Imagine the power and time savings when looking through a return from a foundation such as The Wal-Mart Foundation. Their return in is excess of 1800 pages in length. Simply search for "American Cancer Society" and 990 Search will notify you that the first occurrence of the American Cancer Society on the Wal-Mart return is on page 223. Or, simply enter in an organization similar to your own, your state and see what Foundations are supporting similar causes. Verify the level of giving received, etc. Many 990 search products on the market limit your search results to grants greater than $5000. With 990 Search you can search for grants of all sizes and tap into funds you may have otherwise missed. The possibilities are endless and 990 Search maximizes both your results and most importantly, your time.
