

Intelligent, All-In-One Prospecting

High-Quality Prospect Lists, Built For Your Organization

Getting your cause in front of the right people — new prospective donors who have an affinity for your mission and the capacity to make a difference — is challenging. But prospecting doesn't have to feel overwhelming. Fuel your donor pipeline with AI-powered prospect lists built for you and tailored to your specific needs.

Highly-Personalized Prospect Lists with No Compromises

You shouldn't have to settle for expensive cold lists or waste your efforts using irrelevant, cookie-cutter lists that don't produce the results you're looking for. With iWave, you have a better option: prospect lists are generated based on the unique characteristics and needs of your organization.

Prospecting Done in Record Time

We get it: prospecting can be a challenging and time-consuming task, but it's necessary for your organization's success. The good news is that now you can leverage iWave's AI-powered technology to cut your research time from hours or days to less than 15 minutes of effort.

Everything You Need for Effective Outreach and Cultivation

Empower your team with rich intelligence and start cultivating prospective donors right away. With just a few clicks, you can use the industry's most robust screening solution to uncover important insights including contact information, wealth data, and philanthropic history.

How It Works:

1. CREATE YOUR PROSPECT LIST

Search for prospects based on specific categories and location or select top current donors that you would like to replicate. Our proprietary AI-powered technology evaluates billions of philanthropic and wealth indicators to identify individuals who are an ideal fit for your organization.

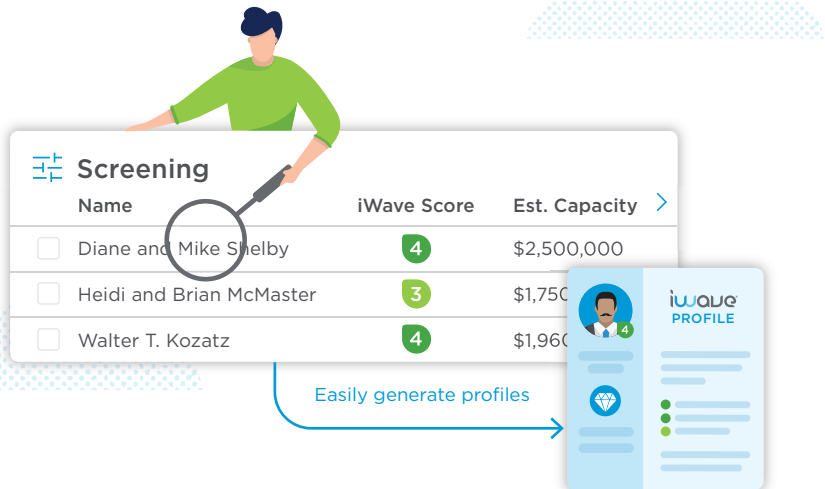

2. REVIEW AND SCREEN PROSPECTIVE DONORS

Screen your list of prospective donors to uncover important philanthropic and wealth insights. You can screen a group of individuals or the entire list.

3. ANALYZE AND TAKE ACTION

Prioritize top prospects with easy-to-read scores, use analytics to develop a cultivation strategy, and gain access to the contact information needed for outreach efforts. Generate comprehensive prospect profiles with a single click.
